Can I Have Income and Still Get SNAP Benefits?

Households with children under 19 and pregnant women living alone must have a total (gross) income below 200% of the poverty level to qualify for SNAP. Adult-only households (age 19-59) must have a total (gross) income below 130% of the poverty level to qualify for SNAP.

Households made up of all elders (age 60 or over) or disabled individuals have no (gross) income limit.

Generally, households must have income below the net standard after deductions to be eligible for a SNAP benefit.

Can I Own Property and Still Apply for SNAP?

You can own a home, personal belongings, car and have money in the bank.

Certain households with disqualified members will have to provide information and proof of money in the bank and other resources, such as stocks, bonds and CDs.

These households will have a $2,250 limit on the resources they can own. Most low-income seniors will not be asked for proof of money in the bank or other resources.

How do I Apply for SNAP Benefits?

- To apply: Call DTA at 1-877-382-2363 to have an application mailed to you. Remember to ask for the Elder SNAP application if you are a Senior (age 60 or older) - it is easier to fill out!
- Visit www.mass.gov/dta and click on the Apply for SNAP/Food Stamps Online link to download an application form.
- You may also apply online by visiting www.mass.gov/vg/selfservice or

- You can visit your local

Department of Transitional Assistance
(DTA) office.

- Fill out the application as much as you can. Be sure to write your name and address and sign it.

- Submit your online application or return the application to: DTA Document Processing Center, P.O. Box 4406, Taunton, MA 02780-0420, or fax to (617) 887-8765, or drop it off in person.

Can Someone Help Me Apply for SNAP Benefits?

You can ask someone you trust to apply for you or go food shopping for you. That person is called your Authorized Representative.

What Happens After I Put in my SNAP Application?

- You must have an interview to talk about your application. You can have the interview over the phone at your convenience or at a local office.
- You will need to show proof (see reverse side), as part of the application process. You will receive information about what proof you need to show DTA when your application is reviewed.
- You will get a decision on your application within 30 days.
- If you are eligible, you will receive SNAP benefits through the Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) system. You will receive a Personal Identification Number (PIN) and an EBT card that can be used just like a debit card to shop for food in supermarkets, convenience stores and pharmacies. You may get the EBT card before we decide if you are eligible for benefits. You won't be able to use the EBT card unless we notify you that your application is approved.

What is SNAP?

The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program helps low income individuals and families buy healthy, nutritious food. A SNAP household's monthly benefit depends on household size, income and expenses. You may be eligible for SNAP - read below to learn more!

Who Can Get SNAP Benefits?

If you or someone in your household is a U.S. citizen or legal non-citizen, and makes below a certain income, you may be able to get SNAP benefits.

Who is Part of My Household?

In most cases, a household includes all people who buy, cook and eat meals together.

What If I Have Little or No Money At All?

In an emergency, some people can get SNAP benefits faster. For example:

- If your income is less than $150 a month and you have less than $100 in other resources, such as your bank account.
- Your income and the resources of your household are less than your combined monthly rent or mortgage and utility expenses.

If either of these describes you, you may be able to get SNAP benefits within seven days. If you need more information, call DTA at 1-877-382-2363.

What Proofs Will I Need?

- Something showing your name and address - If you have no address, you must say where you are staying.
- Proof of Income - If you are working, submit your last four pay stubs, or proof of income from your employer. Submit an award letter or direct deposit statements of unearned income amounts and frequency of payments.
- Social Security Numbers for all Members Applying - If you do not have Social Security numbers for applicants, DTA will help you get them.
